Re: Kariktan Festival
Speakers: Rey Calinisan & Ms. Sarrah Mae Calinisan

Mr. Rey Calinisan appeared before the Committee proposing Kariktan Festival in conjunction with the celebration of Burnaby's 125th anniversary next year.

Ms. Sarrah Mae Calinisan advised that Kariktan Festival will be a family-oriented event, promoting community pride and unity amongst diversified cultures through a showcase of different ethnic costumes, traditions and talents, highlighting their background and ingenuity. This will be accomplished through a colourful, fun-filled street parade and costume display.

The speaker advised that the festival is planned for 2017 August 27 at Swangard Stadium. The festival would start in the morning with a street parade (lasting about an hour to an hour and half) from the Metrotown parking lot using the south lane of Kingsway, and ending up at the stadium. The celebrations will continue until approximately 6 p.m.

In conclusion, the delegation requested the City's assistance with endorsement, partnership, and a street closure.

The Chair thanked the delegation for their informative presentation, and encouraged them to submit their official Festivals Burnaby grant application by the 2017 March 15 deadline.
