Note: Under the New Business portion of 2020 May 25 Council meeting, Council adopted a motion that Mayor Hurley issue a statement to re-affirm the City's commitment to stop racism. Following statement was published on the City's website and Mayor's Office social media accounts:

"As a City, we strongly condemn racism. Hate and racism have no place in our society. In the wake of COVID-19, we have seen increased attacks against members of ethnic communities around Metro Vancouver and beyond. These attacks will not be tolerated. We take great pride in being a diverse and inclusive City, and are firmly committed to upholding and protecting these values."
