Subject: Christine Sinclair being inducted BC Sports Hall of Fame May 28

Hello Ms. Zeinabova:

We are excited to be inducting Christine Sinclair into the BC Sports Hall of Fame, May 28, at the Banquet of Champions! She and four other BC members of the 2012 Olympic Women's Soccer Team will be inducted at the same time.

I have heard how proud Mayor Corrigan is of the fact that Christine is a Burnaby native. May I take this opportunity to suggest the City of Burnaby consider sponsoring her induction? I have included a sponsorship proposal for your review.

A few details about the Banquet of Champions:

- Induction into the BC Sports Hall of Fame is the highest honour accorded in BC for sporting achievement
- The Banquet of Champions attracts 700-800 sports and business leaders
- The Canadian Olympic Committee is attending
- Numerous high-performance athletes and Olympians attend
- Politicians attend depending on their schedules: the Premier, Lieutenant-Governor, Minister of Sport
- MC'd by Global TV's Steve Darling

I will call you Monday, March 1 to follow up.

Thank you for your consideration,
Ruth Reynolds

Honouring the Past. Inspiring the Future.

2015 Banquet of Champions

Of life's endeavours, sport is one that we can all play. It may begin in the schoolyard, back lot or street. Sport has enormous potential to define how we live and learn, to shape and define who we are. Each year, through an extensive review and selection process, a few select individuals are inducted into the BC Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of their outstanding sporting achievements.

The Banquet of Champions is an evening of honour and celebration, recognizing those achievements. Induction into the BC Sports Hall of Fame is the highest recognition awarded to an athlete, team, builder or media in British Columbia.

A prestigious sports gala, the Banquet of Champions, held annually since 1967, attracts 700-800 sports and business leaders.

By becoming a sponsor, you are helping us fuel the passion!
