Local performers and exhibitors are featured along with a marketplace with souvenirs, food and beverage.

The Bosnian-Herzegovinian Cultural Center, Vancouver, Canada (BHCCVC) is a facility that provides the opportunity for the Bosnian-Herzegovinian community to preserve and promote their heritage and identity and implement their moral and ethical values and experiences in Canadian society.

The application has been completed in full and the applicant has shown evidence that they have the capacity to coordinate the event. Festivals Burnaby funds would be allocated toward eligible project expenses related to programming, marketing/promotions and administration.
