Dear Ms. Zeinabova
Thanks so much for speaking to me this morning. I appreciate your kind assistance. As per my flyer, the objective of the Sitar Concert is to initiate and offer cultural enrichment and have a positive cultural impact on merging diversity and generational mapping.

Kindly let me know if you want me to formally fill out an application in order to expedite the deadline of 4pm today or is the above adequate. I also have the following write up and details which may suffice in order to clarify the two fold objective of this event. We would like to present the net proceeds for the benefit of the Syrian new comers.
Best Regards

PS Kindly see details below:

We welcome you to engage with the community at our signature event, which will showcase a brilliant maestro, Pandit Harvinder Sharma on Sitar. This event is a celebration of the Asian Heritage Month and an opportunity for attendees to experience exceptional presentation of Indian Classical Sitar Music. All our proceeds will be donated to assist the Syrian settlement in the community.

Pandit (Dr) Harvinder Sharma, is a Sitar maestro with profound musical acumen. He is a disciple of legendary Ustad Vilayat Khan who has a unique style of presenting Gayaki (Vocal imitation) and virtuosity. Pandit Harvinder Sharma has been awarded numerous prestigious honour, such as Karam Yogi Award which is the highest state recognition in field of art, Sumani Award in Mumbai, Pandit Lakshmi Chand State Award bestowed by Chief Minister, Life-time Achievement Award, an award of honour by the Haryana Government on the 56th Republic Day and many more.

We are graced with this exceptionally gifted artist to present his glorious music which is transcending beyond words.

We take this opportunity to invite you to our local community event and to be a participatory community collaborator.
