- a) Crisis Intervention and Suicide Prevention Centre of BC
Re: Burnaby Services and Programs
Speaker: Sandy Biggerstaff, Executive Director

Ms. Sandy Biggerstaff, Executive Director of the Crisis Intervention and Suicide Prevention Centre of BC, appeared before the Committee and provided an overview of services and programs delivered by the Crisis Centre to Burnaby residents.

The speaker advised that the Crisis Centre has been providing emotional support to youth, adults and seniors in distress for 49 years. In Burnaby, the speaker noted 6,564 residents were impacted in 2017. The speaker highlighted the following statistics:

- 1,838 residents used the Crisis Centre's Online and Phone Distress Service
- 1,482 youth participated in a school-based Wellness Workshop
- 240 school staff, health care workers, police, emergency services staff, older adult care providers, and others participated in a training program
- 851 Burnaby visitors to crisiscentrechat.ca

The delegation stated that the Crisis Centre works with the Burnaby School District to provide training-for-trainers, which included 15 school counsellors being trained last year to support youth at risk of suicide.

The speaker noted the main reasons clients used the Crisis Centre's services last year were related to the following issues: 58% - mental health; 22% - relationships; and, 19% - thoughts of suicide.

The delegation concluded by thanking the Committee for the financial support that has been given to the Centre by the City over the years.
