

Office of The Mayor of the City of Burnaby

PROCLAMATION

INTERNATIONAL TRIGEMINAL NEURALGIA DAY

- WHEREAS Trigeminal Neuralgia (TN) is a chronic face pain (known as tic douloureux) considered in the medical profession as the worst pain known to mankind; and
- WHEREAS TN patients' face are sensitive to the slightest touch; electrical shocks, fireworks – feels like someone is tazing your face; and
- WHEREAS TN is usually caused by a blood vessel laying on a nerve that controls the movement in your face. Eating, facial expressions and speaking will cause extreme pain; and
- WHEREAS Medications might control the pain until you make a decision to explore surgeries. Surgeries are successful for some people. There's a large population that have TN pain caused by other reasons and medications and surgeries are considered band aids. This group suffers from continuous brutal pain; and
- WHEREAS Together we will end the loneliness, isolation and painful days that TN patients have to endure by lighting-up in TEAL or BLUE on October 7.

NOW THEREFORE I, DEREK R. CORRIGAN, MAYOR OF BURNABY, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM OCTOBER 7, 2018 AS

“INTERNATIONAL TRIGEMINAL NEURALGIA DAY”

IN THE CITY OF BURNABY

Derek R. Corrigan
