Proclamation

UNITED NATIONS WORLD INTERFAITH HARMONY WEEK

Whereas United Nations World Interfaith Harmony Week is an opportunity to raise awareness of religious intolerance, misunderstanding or ignorance, and to bring opportunity for mutual self-reflection, open-mindedness and respect to all religions; and

WHEREAS The City of Burnaby respects the equality of rights and privileges of residents from all its diverse communities, and encourages dialogue among different faiths to enhance mutual understanding, harmony and cooperation among its people; and

WHEREAS Upholding a zero tolerance for discrimination and supporting programs and projects that inspire residents to practice and observe one's religion, individual conviction, or beliefs without fear is a priority of the municipality and community partners in Burnaby.

NOW THEREFORE I, MIKE HURLEY, MAYOR OF BURNABY,
DO HEREBY PROCLAIM FEBRUARY 1 – 7 AS

“UNITED NATIONS WORLD
INTERFAITH HARMONY WEEK”

IN THE CITY OF BURNABY.

DATED THIS TWENTY-EIGHTH
DAY OF JANUARY, 2019 A.D.

MIKE HURLEY
MAYOR
