Proclamation

NATIONAL INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY

Whereas National Indigenous Peoples Day is recognized nation-wide as an opportunity for all Canadians to acknowledge the unique heritage and diverse cultures of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples; and

WHEREAS Burnaby is located on the ancestral and unceded homelands of the Skwxwú7mesh and traditional hənq̓əminəm speaking people; and

WHEREAS We honour the ongoing contributions Indigenous Peoples make to Canada's identity. These contributions continue to shape who we are as a nation.

NOW THEREFORE I, MIKE HURLEY, MAYOR OF BURNABY,
DO HEREBY PROCLAIM 2019 JUNE 21 AS

“NATIONAL INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY”

IN THE CITY OF BURNABY.

DATED THIS TENTH
DAY OF JUNE, 2019 A.D.

MIKE HURLEY
MAYOR
