FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

DATE: 2019 Sep 11

FROM: DIRECTOR FINANCE

FILE: 7800-02

SUBJECT: 2020 PERMISSIVE TAX EXEMPTIONS

PURPOSE: To obtain approval for Permissive Property Tax Exemptions for 2020.

RECOMMENDATION:

1. THAT The Financial Management Committee recommend Council authorize the City Solicitor to bring forward a Permissive Property Tax bylaw to exempt the properties listed in Attachment 1 from property taxation in 2020.

REPORT1.0 INTRODUCTION

The exemptions outlined in this report fall within Section 224 of the Community Charter and are further administered by Council Policy. Organizations seeking a permissive exemption from property taxation must apply to the city on an annual basis, with application forms and supporting documentation due back to the City by the end of April. Staff review each application, arrange for site visits by Property Use Coordinators from the Licence Office and arrange for detailed site survey plans to be prepared through the Engineering Department. These inspections and survey plans help to confirm the extent of the permissive exemption and any areas of the site that should be taxable.

Council's policy for granting permissive exemptions dates back to 1986 and was formulated to provide equitable treatment for those applying for exemptions as well as maintaining the property tax base, thereby minimizing the impact of exemptions on the remaining tax payers. This report outlines details for all new and rejected applications, plus details for any changes to existing recipients. A complete listing of all properties to be included in the Burnaby Taxation Exemption Bylaw is provided in Attachment 1.

Notices are sent to all provisionally approved and rejected applicants prior to this Committee meeting. Applicants whose submission has been rejected were encouraged to provide additional information where required that may support their application.

In total, there are 170 properties that form the proposed Burnaby Taxation Exemption Bylaw, comprising of 112 different organisations. The total estimated value of the proposed permissive exemptions from taxation for 2020 is $3.5m ($1.2m City of Burnaby and $2.3m School and Other Bodies).

Under the provisions of the Community Charter, the annual bylaw to permissively exempt properties from property taxation must be adopted by Council on or before October 31 of the preceding year. As per legislation, public notification listing each property receiving an exemption must be advertised for two consecutive weeks in a local newspaper prior to adoption of the bylaw.

4.0 NEW APPLICATIONS - NOT RECOMMENDED FOR PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION

The City has received 14 new applications from 12 organizations for the 2020 Property Tax year. Notifications have been sent to each of the rejected applicants. It is the recommendation of staff that the following eight new applications be rejected for the reasons listed below:

7782 Kerrywood Crescent & 7899 17th Avenue 1954-7782-0000 & 4380-7899-0000
Strive Living Society

Applications have been received from Strive Living Society for two properties: 7899 17th Avenue, (Liberty Place) Burnaby, Folio 4380-7899-0000 and 7782 Kerrywood Crescent, (Kerrywood) Burnaby, Folio 1954-7782-0000. Strive Living Society provides various programs and community care services to people with physical and mental disabilities, including youth and adults. Programs include adult residential care, assisted living, adult day programs, assisted independent living and supported independent living, children and youth residential and home share programs.

These applications are rejected as they are non-compliant with Part 2 of city guidelines, which restrict exemptions to care facilities and seniors housing, that the services provided are not a complementary extension of City services, and that the number of Burnaby residents using the services could not be established.

6540 Thomas Street 2030-6540-0000
Scandinavian Community Centre Society

An application has been received from the Scandinavian Community Centre Society located at 6540 Thomas Street, Burnaby, Folio, 2030-6540-0000, for the 2020 Property Tax year. This organization has been in operation for 26 years, and provides an unpaid meeting place for all non-profit societies of Finland, Sweden, Norwegian, Icelandic and Danish origin. Various groups use the centre, including: Friends of Finland, Vancouver Finlandia Club, Finnish Heritage, Danish Brotherhood, Swedish Cultural Society, Scandinavian Businessmen's Club, Scandinavian Dancers. The organization also hosts language classes and various craft courses.

This application is rejected as the services provided are not a complementary extension of City services, and that the number of Burnaby residents using the services was only 33%.

5216 Glencarin Drive 2250-5216-0001
Wildlife Rescue Association (WRA) of BC

An application has been received from the Wildlife Rescue Association of BC (WRA), located at 5216 Glencarin Drive, Burnaby, Folio, 2250-5216-0001, for the 2020 Property

Tax year. Staff have spoken with representatives from the WRA regarding a possible permissive tax exemption from the City on a number of previous occasions. WRA operate from lands leased from Metro Vancouver on the south side of Burnaby Lake, and as such representatives from Metro Vancouver have also been involved in respective discussions. The WRA provide wildlife rehabilitation services in Burnaby, taking in injured, orphaned and pollution damaged wildlife.

This application is rejected on the grounds that the services provided by this organization are not a complementary extension of City services. In addition the number of Burnaby residents using the services was only 25%.

7550 Rosewood Street
The New Vista Society

3180-7550-5000

An application has been received from the The New Vista Society for 7550 Rosewood Street. Through this location the society provides a 236 bed residential care facility, providing services for people living with complex health issues and dementia. The society is in the process of building a new facility at 7232 New Vista Place. Upon occupancy of the new building 7550 Rosewood Street is to be vacated and demolished. This is planned for some point in 2020.

This application is rejected as the application is non-compliant with Part 2 of City guidelines, which restrict exemptions to care facilities and seniors housing. The temporary nature of the existing site will result in the property being vacant in 2020, and therefore cannot be subject to a permissive exemption. Under current guidelines the services provided by New Vista do not constitute an extension of a municipal service. Finally the number of Burnaby residents using their services falls below that required by the City.

4810 Boundary Road
Aunt Leah's Foundation

5105-4810-0000

The Aunt Leah's Foundation was established in 1988 and provides support services and accommodation to teen moms under the age of 19. Services include: Daily programming to develop parenting skills, access to an outreach worker, Aboriginal Infant Development Program (AIDP), cultural teachings, Nipissing District Developmental Screen (NDDS) – a tool to monitor baby development, and helping mothers with their preparedness to successfully parent and live independently with their babies.

This application is being rejected for an exemption as the property is used to provide accommodation in addition to other services. The services provided are not a complementary extension to City services, and that the number of Burnaby residents only makes up around 30% of current members.

4355 Mathissi Place
Burnaby Family Life Institute

5589-4355-0004

Burnaby Family Life Institute provide several programs which form extensions of a municipal services at other locations. These programs include: Counselling services for women fleeing violence, services for vulnerable immigrants, child minding and parenting classes. This organization receives Permissive Tax Exemptions for multiple properties in Burnaby.

The application for the site at 4355 Mathissi Place is being rejected as the services provided at this site are not a complementary extension of City services. The site is a for-profit enterprise, and the number of Burnaby residents using the site cannot be measured.

1005 Kensington Avenue
Korean Baptist Church of Vancouver

6545-1005-0000

This is the first time that the Korean Baptist Church of Vancouver have applied for a permissive tax exemption at this location. The property was purchased by the church in November 2018, and had a partial exemption for 2019 under the previous occupant - Vancouver Chinese Lutheran Church.

This application is being rejected for an exemption as insufficient information was provided with the application in support of how they provide a complementary extension to City services, or in support of the number of Burnaby residents who would use the church.

5.0 CHANGES OR DELETIONS TO EXISTING EXEMPTION RECIPIENTS

Deletions:

7895 Canada Way
New Westminster Evangelical Free Church

1770-7895-0000

Applicant did not submit an application for a 2020 Permissive Tax Exemption, despite several attempts by City staff to contact the organization. Notification has been sent to the organization informing them that permissive exemptions will not be granted for 2020.

#3-2055 Rosser Avenue
City of Burnaby – space used by YMCA of Greater Vancouver

5585-2055-5003

Property is deleted from the assessment roll for year 2020 because the organization is no longer occupying this space.

Changes:

5975 Sunset Street 1970-5975-0000
Brentwood Park Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses Burnaby

Based on a new survey and property area plan prepared by the City of Burnaby, the exempt area has changed from 3390m² to 3405.5m². BC Assessment will be notified about the change to recalculate the partial exemption area.

6.0 RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Financial Management Committee recommend Council authorize the City Solicitor to bring forward a Permissive Property Tax bylaw to exempt the properties listed in Attachment 1 from property taxation in 2020.
