Hi Monica,

I heard from our operations team at Fortius that we will be making some significant changes at Fortius in the coming weeks. As a result, we wish to remove ourselves from consideration for the programming grant which we applied for last month, and also from the operations grant which we applied for in January. I hope this does not cause too much inconvenience. I believe the executive committee met this week, so my apologies for this timing. We were informed of this news last night.

Please feel free to reach out if you have any questions.

Best wishes

Andy
