Distinguished Mike Hurley,

Guizhou's International Sister Cities Exchange Conference and "Friendship Day" Event will be held in Guiyang in the southwestern province of Guizhou on September 8-9, 2024. The theme of the event is "Friendly Cooperation for Common Development and Prosperity," and discussions and exchanges have been planned around the two main topics of "Intensifying Economic and Trade Exchanges and Improving Cooperation Effectiveness" and "Strengthening People-to-People Exchanges and Promoting Mutual Understanding." Taking place at the same time will be "Guizhou's International Sister Cities at the China (Guizhou) International Alcoholic Beverages Expo" Featured Exhibition, Roadside Music Concert—Night of Friendship, "Friendship Day" Networking Activity along with other activities aimed at deepening understanding, fostering friendship, and strengthening cooperation.

Guizhou is an important inland transportation hub in Southwestern China and a key part of the New International Land-Sea Trade Corridor. Connecting east and west by land and sea, it plays a significant role in China's Western Development Strategy. Guizhou is currently engaged in implementing a high-quality development strategy promoting new forms of industrialization, urbanization, agricultural modernization, and tourism in pursuit of greater opening-up to the outside world. As a result, unprecedented opportunities for development have begun to appear in Guizhou. The event promises to provide participants with an open, practical, and innovative platform for exchange and an opportunity to establish new connections, learn from one another, and promote mutually beneficial cooperation transcending the confines of regional borders. Being held concurrently with the event to provide additional opportunities for participants to find new partners for economic, trade, and industrial collaboration is the 13th China (Guizhou) International Alcoholic Beverages Expo.

We cordially invite you to attend Guizhou's International Sister Cities Exchange Conference and "Friendship Day" Event and look forward to meeting you in Guiyang and exploring new opportunities for friendship, cooperation, and development together!
