

Environmental Awards 2026

Terms of reference

Nomination
deadline
March 30

The City of Burnaby's Environmental Awards program recognizes the outstanding contributions of individuals, community groups, businesses and organizations to environmental sustainability in Burnaby. Help us recognize Burnaby's environmental leaders by making a nomination today.

Award categories

1 Business stewardship

For Burnaby businesses that help the environment. They teach employees and customers about ecological issues in Burnaby and reduce their impact by saving energy, using less water, reducing waste, and other practices.

2 Communications

For work that helps people understand environmental issues better or encourages them to be more environmentally friendly in Burnaby. Communications include all types of media, like print, digital, video, and audio.

3 Community stewardship

For people, groups, and organizations in Burnaby who have volunteered or worked for several years to help the environment. They help make people aware of environmental issues and improve Burnaby's environment.

4 Green choices

For Burnaby residents, including individuals, groups, and organizations, who are committed to being environmentally friendly at home and in their community. They might save energy, reduce waste, recycle, use water wisely, plant native plants in their gardens, or bike and walk to work.

5 Planning and development

For Burnaby developments using green building technologies and innovative environmental features. They might save energy, reuse materials, manage water better, and protect ecosystems.

6 Youth

For kids and teenagers who have raised awareness about environmental issues or improved Burnaby's environment through their own projects or school programs.

Nomination information

Visit Burnaby.ca/EnvironmentalAwards for an online nomination form.

Award process

The program includes two award designations. Environmental Awards recognize individuals and groups for outstanding environmental achievements, Environmental Stars recognize accomplishments carried out on a smaller scale.

Awards will be presented at the Council meeting on June 23, 2026.
